

Fund Description and Investment Policy

The InvestCorp Treasury Securities Fund is an open-ended risk free (sovereign-only exposure) fixed income fund designed for investors who seek exposure to Treasury bills, notes and bonds or Treasury-backed securities. It presents a more active approach to investment that is well suited for conservative investors who want to invest in safe assets over the medium to long term. It is suited for retirement plans, education and funeral savings, church and school endowments, among others.

Investment Allocation

The current investment allocation of the Fund is as follows:

Fund Information

Weighted Average Maturity (Yrs.)	4.99
Duration (Yrs.)	4.03

Investment Approach

The Fund aims at all times to construct an optimal treasury portfolio relative to the market - based on value, duration and identified short-term market advances. The portfolio strategy is to diversify among the different types of government securities, tenor and yields. Our approach to investing in Treasury securities seeks to offer:

Investment Grade Quality

Investments are safe; backed by the full faith and credit of the government of Ghana

Prudent Liquidity Management

Active duration strategy to allow for liquidity management and provide opportunities for return enhancement through trading

Total Return

Active trading to enhance yield and improve alpha

Current Investment Strategy

With the successful completion of the Domestic Debt Exchange Program (DDEP), we continue to observe the market's reaction (pricing) to the newly listed bonds and will make informed adjustment accordingly. However, Treasury bills remain attractive as it offers competitive returns and safety. We expect yields on Treasury bills to trend downwards and we will lock in value timely.
